

I choose to pay a monthly fee to be provided a higher quality of service than what is available on AM and FM stations. This not only includes music, but also news, traffic and weather. I compare it to paying for cable TV. I would hope that along with giving people (who are willing to pay) what they want, this service might also force the regular folks to work toward higher standards. Let me keep my XM intact.
Steve Miller